

Information of the Centre

Achhalia is situated in tribal area of Bharuch district near Umarlla village. This centre comprises of three farms, each situated 1 km away from each other as under :

Cotton Research Substation

which have 10.06 ha. land area including building, road, canal and office. Out of this, 6.67 ha area is under cultivation. The research trials and crossing programs of cotton received from Main Cotton Research Station, Surat are conducted at this farm.

NARP II (Soil and Water Management) farm

The farm has 6.39 ha. land area. Of these, 5.89 ha. area is under cultivated while 0.50 ha. land is allotted for building and well area. Trials on irrigation, mulching, soil cultivation and moisture conservation are conducted at this farm.

Seed farm, Uchchhab

The farm is occupied from Director of Agriculture, Gandhinagar since 2005 and this farm has land area of 31.4 ha. including building, road and other infrastructure. Seed production programs on different varieties of pulses, paddy, groundnut, sugarcane, sunnhemp and sorghum are taken in this farm on need based approach.