

1. Advancement in teaching with hands on practical exposure to the UG students.
2. Undertaking Animal research programme involving the nutritional and managerial aspect of various livestock species
3. Identification and evaluation of various non-conventional feed recourses in animal production system
4. Educating farmers with respect to advancement in animal production sciences and their technical implementation at field level