

OBJECTIVES:

Objectives

The prime objective to establish the School of Baking is to prepare skilled bakery technical personal who are able to prepare varieties of bakery products on a commercial base in a scientific manner. The other objectives are:

- To provide 20 week training to the youths for establishing bakery industry and thereby increase the self employment opportunity for the educationally unemployed person.
- To impart skill oriented knowledge regarding baking science to the new entrepreneur and to provide business opportunity.
- To provide technical & industrial know-how to the people engaged in bakery industries for the development of their business.
- To provide the latest information on baking science and technology to the people engaged in the bakery business through conducting special training courses and other activities.
- To impart knowledge to prepare bakery products with the help of domestic method through organizing short duration training programmers for housewives/ladies.
- To provide opportunity to the specific groups like home science school/college girls as per their requirement about learning baking science by organizing special training programmes and other activities.
- To disseminate the knowledge of baking science and technology through mass-media.