

Short duration training for farmers :

This center organizes one to three days short duration training programmes on agriculture, horticulture, animal husbandry and other allied aspects for farmers of South Gujarat. Mostly, need based training programmes are organized by this center. Well equipped Sardar Training Hall is available for effective training. Well furnished Farmers Hostel is available for lodging and boarding facilities for trainees. Farm visits are also organized for trainees for better understanding to the trainees. All infrastructure facility is available for organizing effective trainings.