

Mandate

1. To create minimum facilities for research in the subject of Animal Sciences.
2. To conserve local breeds of various species available in South Gujarat
3. To identify the livestock problems of the area and plan the research strategy as a corrective measures for particular problem.
4. To demonstrate standard animal husbandry practices to the farmers of South Gujarat and to serve as livestock farm for undergraduate and Post graduate students of different colleges of NAU.