Dear Member,

As you know that AIASA signed MoU with YPARD. All Members can be a member of YPARD also. It is free of cost and all members will be able to get information related to different agricultural activities of young professionals in different countries.

Join YPARD using following link: <https://ypard.net/user/register>

It is further requested to communicate above message among all agricultural students/scientist/researcher/administrator/lecturer or equivalent etc.

Regards,
All India Agricultural Students Association
