INTRODUCTION

As per the Gujarat Agricultural University Act 2004 (Gujarat Act No.5 of 2004) the erstwhile Gujarat Agricultural University was divided into following four Universities-

1. Anand Agricultural University (AAU), Anand
2. Junagadh Agricultural University (JAU), Junagadh
3. Navsari Agricultural University (NAU), Navsari
4. Sardarkrushinagar Dantiwada Agricultural University (SDAU), Sardarkrushinagar

All above mentioned Agricultural Universities here-in-after will be referred as “State Agricultural Universities (SAUs)” of Gujarat State. These SAUs offer various Post Graduate (PG) degree programmes through the constituent colleges of each University i.e. Master's Degree Programme of two years (4 semesters) duration and Doctoral Degree Programmes of three years (6 semesters).

The admissions on 75% seats of total intake of PG programmes are reserved to Gujarat domicile and pass out students of SAUs of Gujarat State/ICAR accredited SAUs of other states. Remaining vacant seats if any may be filled by pass-out students of SAUs of Gujarat and non-domicile of Gujarat State. Rest of the 25% seats of total intake is reserved for students nominated by Indian Council of Agricultural Research (ICAR) AIEEA (PG) 2021.

For conducting Common Admissions for Post Graduate Programmes Vice Chancellor, NAU, Navsari is nominated as “Nodal Officer for Common Admissions for Post Graduate Programmes”, moreover, “Central Admission Committee” is formed for performing all duties/responsibilities related to this admission-

1. The Registrars of SAUs
2. The Director of Research & Dean PG Studies of SAUs
3. Deans of faculties of SAUs
4. Member secretary of Council of SAUs or representative

The SAUs of Gujarat State have most of the Post Graduate degree programmes in common; hence, the Admission Committee takes the responsibility of admission to PG degree programmes commonly offered by SAUs viz., Agriculture, Horticulture, Agricultural Engineering & Technology, Food Technology, Agricultural Information Technology, Forestry, Home Science/Community Science, Basic Science & Humanity and Agri Business Management. However, if a PG degree programme is offered by only one of the SAUs, then responsibility of admission to that PG programme shall be of that particular University.
