

Introduction

Dadabhai Nauroji Agricultural Educatorium established at Navsari Agricultural University, Navsari was inaugurated by DR. SHRIMATI KAMLA, The Governor of Gujarat, Raj Bhavan, Gandhinagar in the Solemn Presence of SHRI KANUBHAI BHALALA, Hon. Minister for Agriculture and Water Resources (STATE), Government of Gujarat, Gandhinagar and DR. P. RETHINAM, former Director, National Research Centre for Oil Palm, A.P. and former Member Governing Body, I.C.A.R., New Delhi and DR. A.R. PATHAK, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor, Navsari Agricultural University, Navsari on 18th February, 2012.

This Museum is for educating the Visitors, Students as well as the Farmers of the State. Technologies in Agriculture, Veterinary, Horticulture, Forestry, Agri. Business Management & Post Harvest Technology etc. are available with latest photographs, posters, charts, models, murals, diorama, live specimens, touch screen kiosk, storytelling board and press button board. The most of the events quoted in the museum goes to the development of Indian agriculture. The agricultural related branches have been depicted in the various sections of the museum. Another special feature of this museum is to provide complete knowledge on the subjects through easy and interactive audio-visual medium.