

Objectives

- Planning and organization of short duration and need based training programme for farmers.
- Planning and organization of short duration and need based training programme in agriculture, animal husbandry, value addition, home science and storage of food grain, etc for farm women.
- Planning, coordination and participation in all the extension activities of NAU.
- Publication and distribution of farm literature as per need and requirement of farming community.
- To facilitate the new agricultural information to the farmers during their personal visit at centre or by telephonic manner.
- To provide boarding and lodging facilities to trainees as well as visitor farmers/extension personnel.
- Organize the on campus exposure visit of extension and research station/farm of NAU for visitor farmer.